United States Mint Proof Set

CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICITY

The United States Mint certifies that these proof coins are genuine and were produced at the United States Mint, San Francisco, California. Each coin bears the inscription "U.S. MINT" and the year "1992".

United States proof coins are produced from specially selected planchets of pure metal, and have been subjected to a special finish. The proof finish, which is especially suitable for preserving the coins in excellent condition, is a special polished surface. Each coin is struck at 4000 rpm to bring forth the most intense detail with maximum clarity.

The surface of the coins is free of scratches.
